In terms of the Standards Act 8 of 2008, the copyright in all South African National Standards or any other publications published by the SABS Standards Division, vests in the SABS. Any use of South African National Standards is limited to use specifically prescribed by the SABS. In the case of a South African National Standard based on an international standard, ownership of the copyright vests in the organization from which the SABS adopted the standard, whether it be under licence or membership agreement. The SABS is obliged to protect such copyright and is authorized to make the relevant international organization aware of any misuse thereof. Unless exemption has been granted, no extract or full text of any South African National Standard may be copied, reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission from the SABS Standards Division. This does not preclude the free use, in the course of implementing the standard, of necessary details such as symbols, and size, type or grade designations. If these details are to be used for any purpose other than implementation, prior written permission must be obtained.

Foreword

This South African standard was prepared by National Committee SABS/TC 1070, Retro-reflection, in accordance with procedures of the SABS, in compliance with annex 3 of the WTO/TBT agreement.

This document was approved for publication in July 2017.

This document supersedes SANS 1329-4:2006 (edition 3.7) and SANS 1329-5:2014 (edition 1.5).

Reference is made in 4.1.1 to the "relevant national legislation". In South Africa this means the relevant regulations of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996).

This document is referenced in the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996).

SANS 1329 consists of the following parts, under the general title Retro-reflective and fluorescent warning signs for road vehicles:

Part 1: Triangles.

Part 2: Abnormal load vehicle signs.

Part 3: Signs other than triangles, chevron signs and abnormal load vehicle signs.

Part 4: Retro-reflective chevron signs and decals.

Annex A forms an integral of this document. Annex B is for information only.

Compliance with this document cannot confer immunity from legal obligations.
